

In Ancient Rome, the leader of the church - Julius I - declared Dec. 25th a day to worship God.