

The Israelites crossed the Jordan River into the Promised Land, but had to fight for it! They started in Jericho where God knocked the walls down around the city after the Israelites marched around it. - Joshua 6